Greetings from Udhavum Karangal

I, Director of Chinmaya Mission, Chennai is writing to propose a collaborative initiative aimed at conducting A study to assess the effectiveness of Video Assisted teaching Regarding Role play among Alcoholic Patient. I believe that the project has the potential to create significant impact on pregnant women

As you may be aware, among Alcoholic patient immense challenges to both the individuals and their dependants. However, there is often a lack of awareness and understanding about it Leading to missed opportunities to potential lifesaving treatments. To address this issue, we are seeking to partner with your institution, known for its commitment in health care education and research. I believe that your expertise and resources would greatly enhance our efforts in the project in Thiruvallur district. Additionally, we are happy to fully fund this project of Rupees Fifty thousand only (Rs 50,000-), covering all the expenses related to the survey, awareness and any other associated costs. We would be happy to hear from you at the earliest regarding this collaboration.

Thanking you
